

JANE'S ADDICTION

Bright Ideas

Yves Saint Laurent Beauty is launching special versions of its wildly cult-y highlighting concealer (above). Each pen in the Touche Éclat Slogan Edition ($42, yslbeautyus.com, available in March) features one of three sayings: NO NEED TO SLEEP, ALL LIGHTS ON ME, and, my favorite, I AM NOT A MORNING PERSON. Now I can broadcast my sleepiness even as I'm hiding it.

Soup It Up

If I lived in L.A., I'd be a regular at Soupure, Angela Blatteis and Vivienne Vella's deliciously healthy soup joint. Thanks to their new cookbook The Soup Cleanse ($22, soupure.com), I can re-create some of the magic at home. It's full of great detox and weight-loss tips, but I'm in it for the flavor. Eggplant Parmesan soup? That's my kind of diet!

As You Like It

Mascara fans tend to fall into one of three categories: those who want fullness, those who want curl, and those who want length. I'm squarely in the final category, but I rounded up excellent new options for all of us (left, clockwise from top, left):

Maybelline the Falsies Push Up Drama Mascara ($10, maybelline.com): The wand was designed to lift lashes (hence the name) as well as lengthen.

L'Oréal Paris Voluminous Superstar Mascara ($11, lorealparisusa.com): The primer end of this double wand sets you up for longer, fuller lashes.

Elizabeth Arden Grand Entrance Mascara ($24, elizabetharden.com): A peptide complex accentuates curl; olive extracts prevent flaking.

Au Naturel

The natural-beauty world seems to be making itself over. These new releases (below, from left) not only look good—they also work!

Shiffa Brightening Ampoules ($90, shiffa.com): Apple extract helps brighten skin, while cucumber calms.

Juice Beauty Phyto-Pigments Luminous Lip Crayon ($22, juicebeauty.com): Eggplant extract provides the pigment in this moisturizing lip color.

Forager Woodland Eau de Parfum ($98, foragerbotanicals.com): This blend of cedar, lavender, and vetiver is like a forest in a bottle.

Ellis Brooklyn Excellent Body Milk in Raven ($55, shenbeauty.com): When the beauty editor Bee Shapiro was pregnant, she couldn't find a phthalate- and paraben-free body lotion that thrilled her, so she created her own. I love the new mandarin, peony, and patchouli scent.

True Nature Botanicals Dead Sea Bath Salts in Tranquility ($48, tnbotanicals.com): Lavender and chamomile make these magnesium-rich salts the ideal de-stressers.

Buck Naked Soap Company Lavender & Rosemary Bar ($8, bucknakedsoapcompany.com): This divinely scented, sudsy bar offers a moment of Zen in the shower.

Label M Organics Moisturizing Lemongrass Conditioner ($29, labelm-usa.com): The nourishing quince-seed extract and moisturizing jojoba oil left my hair feeling silkier than ever.

Farmaesthetics Nutrient Dense Fine Facial Oil ($58, farmaesthetics.com): Nine oils, including evening primrose and sunflower, join forces to protect and hydrate on cold days.

S.W. Basics DIY Skincare Essentials Lavender Essential Oil and Hydrosol Spray ($14 and $16, swbasics.com): I use these two lavender-based potions together to promote blood circulation, soothe irritation, and even heal breakouts.

All Good!
